

November 7, 2019

Job Offering: Head Coach German Women's National Team

General description: The German Lacrosse Association (DLaxV) is looking for a head coach for the German Women's Lacrosse national team. The head coach will be head of the Women's national team program and responsible for selecting players, supervising and coaching the national team in preparation for international tournaments as well as supporting the development of players and coaches in Germany.

Duties and responsibilities:

- Planning, conducting and overseeing practices on practice weekends and tryouts
- Leading and cooperating with managers and assistant coaches of the national team
- Cooperation with the head coach of German Women's Development team
- Cooperation and communication with the DLaxV
- Developing players individually and as a team
- Conducting feedback for players and coaches
- Development of guidelines and player profiles to increase transparency and understanding for players and other coaches within Germany
- Development of local coaches to grow the game in Germany

Requirements:

- Sense of responsibility, initiative drive and intrinsic motivation
- Proficiency in English and/or German
- Excellent communication skills, experience in communication with officials, representatives, players and coaches
- Extensive coaching experience
- Experience in international Lacrosse

Costs for travel and accommodation for preparatory events, practice weekends and tournaments will be covered.

Interested applicants are asked to send their application to info@dlaxv.de until November 30, 2019.

Please include the following:

- Detailed CV with respect to coaching experience
- Reference/letter of recommendation

If there are any questions regarding the position, requirements or other please contact info@dlaxv.de.